ABOUT FSRI (www.fisriadr.org)

FSRI is a non-governmental organization which provides training, education and counseling to a range of legal providers in developing countries, including Courts, Judges, Lawyers and Mediators, with the goal of building sustainable mediation programs which achieve timely, fair and peaceful resolution of disputes.

ABOUT THE TRAINERS

CLAUDIA BERNARD is the Chief Circuit Mediator for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Claudia Bernard has taught Mediation and Negotiation at UC Hastings and at Santa Clara University School of Law. She has taught mediation nationally and internationally and has trained mediators for state and federal courts throughout the U.S. and in several foreign countries. She is the 2011 recipient of the San Francisco Mediation Society's Award for Outstanding Contribution in the Field of Mediation.

JENNIFER L. BRANDT is an experienced Arbitrator and Mediator in commercial and family law. She is an FSRI Ambassador who has worked in various states throughout India. Jennifer specializes in mediation and alternate dispute resolution. She acts as the facilitator in annual statewide attorney mediation training programs in mediation in the State of New Jersey.

HOWARD HERMAN currently serves as a Mediator and Director of ADR Programs for the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California in San Francisco. Mr. Herman currently teaches negotiation and mediation at Hastings College of the Law. He also trains mediators in various jurisdictions throughout the United States and across the globe. He has consulted nationally and internationally for ADR programs in India, Jordan, Palau, Germany, Thailand, Malaysia and the Marshall Islands.

LAILA T. OLLAPALLY is a Mediator and a Coordinator of the Bangalore Mediation Centre, one of India's leading Court annexed mediation programs. In 2013, she founded the Centre for Advanced Mediation Practice. She regularly trains Judges and Lawyers to become Mediators and also conducts "Train the Trainers" for The Mediation and Conciliation Project Committee (MCPC) of the Supreme Court.

VICTOR SCHACHTER is a Mediator and a litigation partner at Fenwick & West LLP and the Founder of FSRI, a charitable NGO promoting alternative dispute resolution centers to facilitate timely, fair and peaceful conflict resolution across the globe. In 2006, he worked with the High Court of Karnataka to design and implement the Court annexed program of the Bangalore Mediation Centre. He has also worked on mediation programs in the High Court of Madras, Punjab & Haryana and Kerala.

HON. REBECCA WESTERFIELD (Retd.) is a retired Judge who is one of the most experienced Mediators at JAMS International. JAMS International is the largest provider of private mediation services in the world. She is known to successfully mediate complex cases using the mediation process effectively.
