ABOUT CAMP (www.campmediation.in)

CAMP is a pioneering initiative which provides private mediation services through skilled and well trained Mediators with a strong legal background. We aspire to be change makers and leaders in dispute resolution. At our training division, we conduct mediation training, workshops and seminars in the field of Mediation and conflict management.

ABOUT FSRI (www.fisriadr.org)

FSRI is a non-governmental organization which provides training, education and counseling to a range of legal providers in developing countries, including Courts, Judges, Lawyers and Mediators, with the goal of building sustainable mediation programs which achieve timely, fair and peaceful resolution of disputes.

CAMP and FSRI thank the Center for Negotiation and Dispute Resolution (CNDR) at the University of California, Hastings College of Law for their support in this training program

ABOUT THE TRAINERS:

CLAUDIA BERNARD is the Chief Circuit Mediator for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Claudia Bernard has taught Mediation and Negotiation at UC Hastings and at Santa Clara University School of Law. She has consulted on ADR systems design with visiting delegations from around the world. She is the 2011 recipient of the San Francisco Mediation Society's Award for Outstanding Contribution in the Field of Mediation.

HOWARD HERMAN currently serves as the Mediator and Director of ADR Programs for the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California in San Francisco. He has great expertise in developing and designing ADR systems. He has consulted nationally and internationally for ADR programs in India, Jordan, Palau, Germany, Thailand, Malaysia and the Marshall Islands.

LAILA OLLAPALLY is a Mediator and a Coordinator of the Bangalore Mediation Centre, one of India's leading Court annexed mediation programs. In 2013, she founded the Centre for Advanced Mediation Practice. She regularly trains Judges and Lawyers to become Mediators and also conducts "Train the Trainers" for The Mediation and Conciliation Project Committee (MCPC) of the Supreme Court.

SHEILA PURCELL is the Director and Clinical Professor of the Center for Negotiation and Dispute Resolution (CNDR) at the University of California, Hastings College of Law, which is ranked in the top ten ADR Programs in the United States of America. She has consulted and presented throughout the United States and in Bosnia, China, Hong Kong, Italy, India, the Netherlands, Singapore and Slovenia. For 16 years she designed and directed eight distinct ADR programs at the San Mateo, California Superior Court. Her programs received the prestigious "Kleps" award for Court Innovation and the Chief Justice awarded her a special award for her work.

VICTOR SCHACHTER is a Mediator and a litigation partner at Fenwick & West LLP and the Founder of FSRI, a charitable NGO promoting alternative dispute resolution centers to facilitate timely, fair and peaceful conflict resolution across the globe. In 2006, he worked with the High Court of Karnataka to design and implement the Court annexed program of the Bangalore Mediation Centre. He has also worked on mediation programs in the High Court of Madras, Punjab & Haryana and Kerala.
