General Biography

Justice Kurian Joseph is a retired Judge of the Supreme Court of India, known for his humane and compassionate approach to law. A strong supporter of mediation even on the Bench, Justice Joseph was known for urging parties embroiled in litigation pertaining to personal relationships to settle their disputes amicably. Since retirement, Justice Joseph has been focussed on using ADR processes such as mediation, arbitration and conciliation to support parties to find sustainable, long lasting solutions. He is routinely appointed by the Supreme Court of India and the various High Courts to act as a Mediator and Arbitrator. Justice Joseph is also on the panel of Mediators at Singapore International Mediation Centre (SIMC)

Justice Joseph completed his L.L.B., at Kerala Law Academy Law College, Thiruvananthapuram in 1979 and Enrolled as an Advocate at the Kerala Bar Council in 1979. He has undergone Advanced Mediation Skills Program designed by Singapore International Mediation Centre (SIMC). He became a High Court Judge in the year 2000 and was elevated as Judge of the Supreme Court of India in 2013. As Judge of the Supreme Court of India Justice Joseph was involved in landmark cases like Constitutional Amendment of NJAC (National Judicial Appointments Commission) and in striking down the practice of Triple Talaq. He was one of the ten judges in the history of the Supreme Court of India to have delivered more than 1000 judgements. While on the bench he demonstrated his support for speedy delivery of justice by disposing more than 8600 cases pending in the Supreme Court of India.
