

MEDIATION

ADVOCACY 101

FOR LAWYERS & LAW STUDENTS ONLY

Online Course Brochure

This course will address the following essentials of representing clients in Mediation:

- ✓ Understand the role of a lawyer in Mediation
- ✓ Objectively identify cases suitable for Mediation
- ✓ Strategically pitch Mediation to clients
- ✓ Employ collaborative tools to invite counterparts
- ✓ Preparation checklist before for Mediation

- FEE: 3500 + GST
- WHEN: 21st August, 2021
- TIME: 9:30AM-5:30PM
- Certificate of Participation

Email – aashna.reddy@campmediation.in/

WhatsApp - 9849544400

Apply Now: <https://bit.ly/37bMrGD>

RESOURCE PERSONS

Shantha Chellappa has practiced law in Karnataka for more than 35 years in the field of civil, labour, service and company matters. She was on the panel of insurance companies, railways, and banks. Shantha is trained in Mediation by ISDLS U.S.A., trained in Commercial Mediation by JAMS at CAMP, and by SIMC in Cross border disputes. She is a senior mediator with CAMP and is also a Mediation trainer.

Juieen Nag has extensive experience of more than 15 years both in private practice and as an inhouse counsel. Juieen has handled several strategic management decisions and advised on result oriented effective resolution on many issues.

Rukmani Menon started her independent legal practice 25 years ago and has been handling matters pertaining to Indirect Tax, Commercial matters including winding up petitions, recovery suits, disputes under Negotiable Instruments Act. She has received 40 hours training in mediation from Bangalore Mediation Centre, along with basic mediation training at CAMP. She has over 500 hours of experience as a mediator handling matrimonial and commercial disputes.

Jonathan Rodrigues is a civil and commercial mediator, trained and accredited to practice by the Indian Institute of Arbitration and Mediation (IIAM) and the Indian Institute of Corporate of Affairs (IICA). He pursued his LL.M. studies in Mediation and Conflict Resolution at the University of Strathclyde in Glasgow, where he served as a Mediator at the Strathclyde Mediation Clinic.